

National Offer Day (1 March 2019)

Gordano School has a Published Admission Number (PAN) of 336. In order to meet as many parental preferences as possible for applicants living in the school's First Geographical Area, for the 2019-20 intake, the school has exceptionally agreed to take a breach intake of 25 above the Published Admission Number of 336 taking the total intake to 361.

511 preferences have been received for the school. It has, therefore been necessary to use the oversubscription criteria, as outlined below, to determine which of the applicants should be offered the places available.

The 361 available places have been offered to the following applicants:

Where a school is named in a child's Statement of Special Educational Needs or Education Health and Care Plan, the admission authority is legally required to admit the child to the school. Therefore such children are allocated places before the admissions criteria, detailed below, are applied.

	Number of offers
The school is named in a Statement of Special Educational Needs or Education Health and Care Plan.	2

	Admissions criteria	Number of offers
i	Looked-after children at the time of application and children who were previously looked after but ceased to be so because they were adopted (or became subject to a Child Arrangements Order or Special Guardianship Order) immediately following having been in Care.	5
ii	Children who reside within the Gordano School catchment area who have a sibling on roll at the school at the time of application who will still be on roll at the time of admission and who lives at the same home address.	134
iii	Children who reside within the Gordano School catchment area or with a confirmed move to a home address within this catchment area which can be evidenced at the time of application.	220
iv	Children not satisfying a higher criterion	0

The distance between home and school for the last child offered a place was 2.138 miles.

Any applicants not offered a place at the school have been refused because, under the terms of the School Standards Framework Act 1998 (as amended by the Education Act 2011), a place may be refused if the admission of an additional child would cause prejudice to the provision of efficient education or the efficient use of resources.

Update on 29th April

Gordano School increased its intake to 364 in order to accommodate those children who were in the First Geographical Area for September 2019.

3 places were made available as above.

7 places became available due to parents not accepting the offer of a place.

30 applicants were considered for the vacancies.
