

TO NEWPORT AND CARDIFF

TO CHELTENHAM AND GLOUCESTER

Suggested new stations and services (selection) put forward by local authorities and campaigners in the wider Bristol area

KEY

- New station
- New service

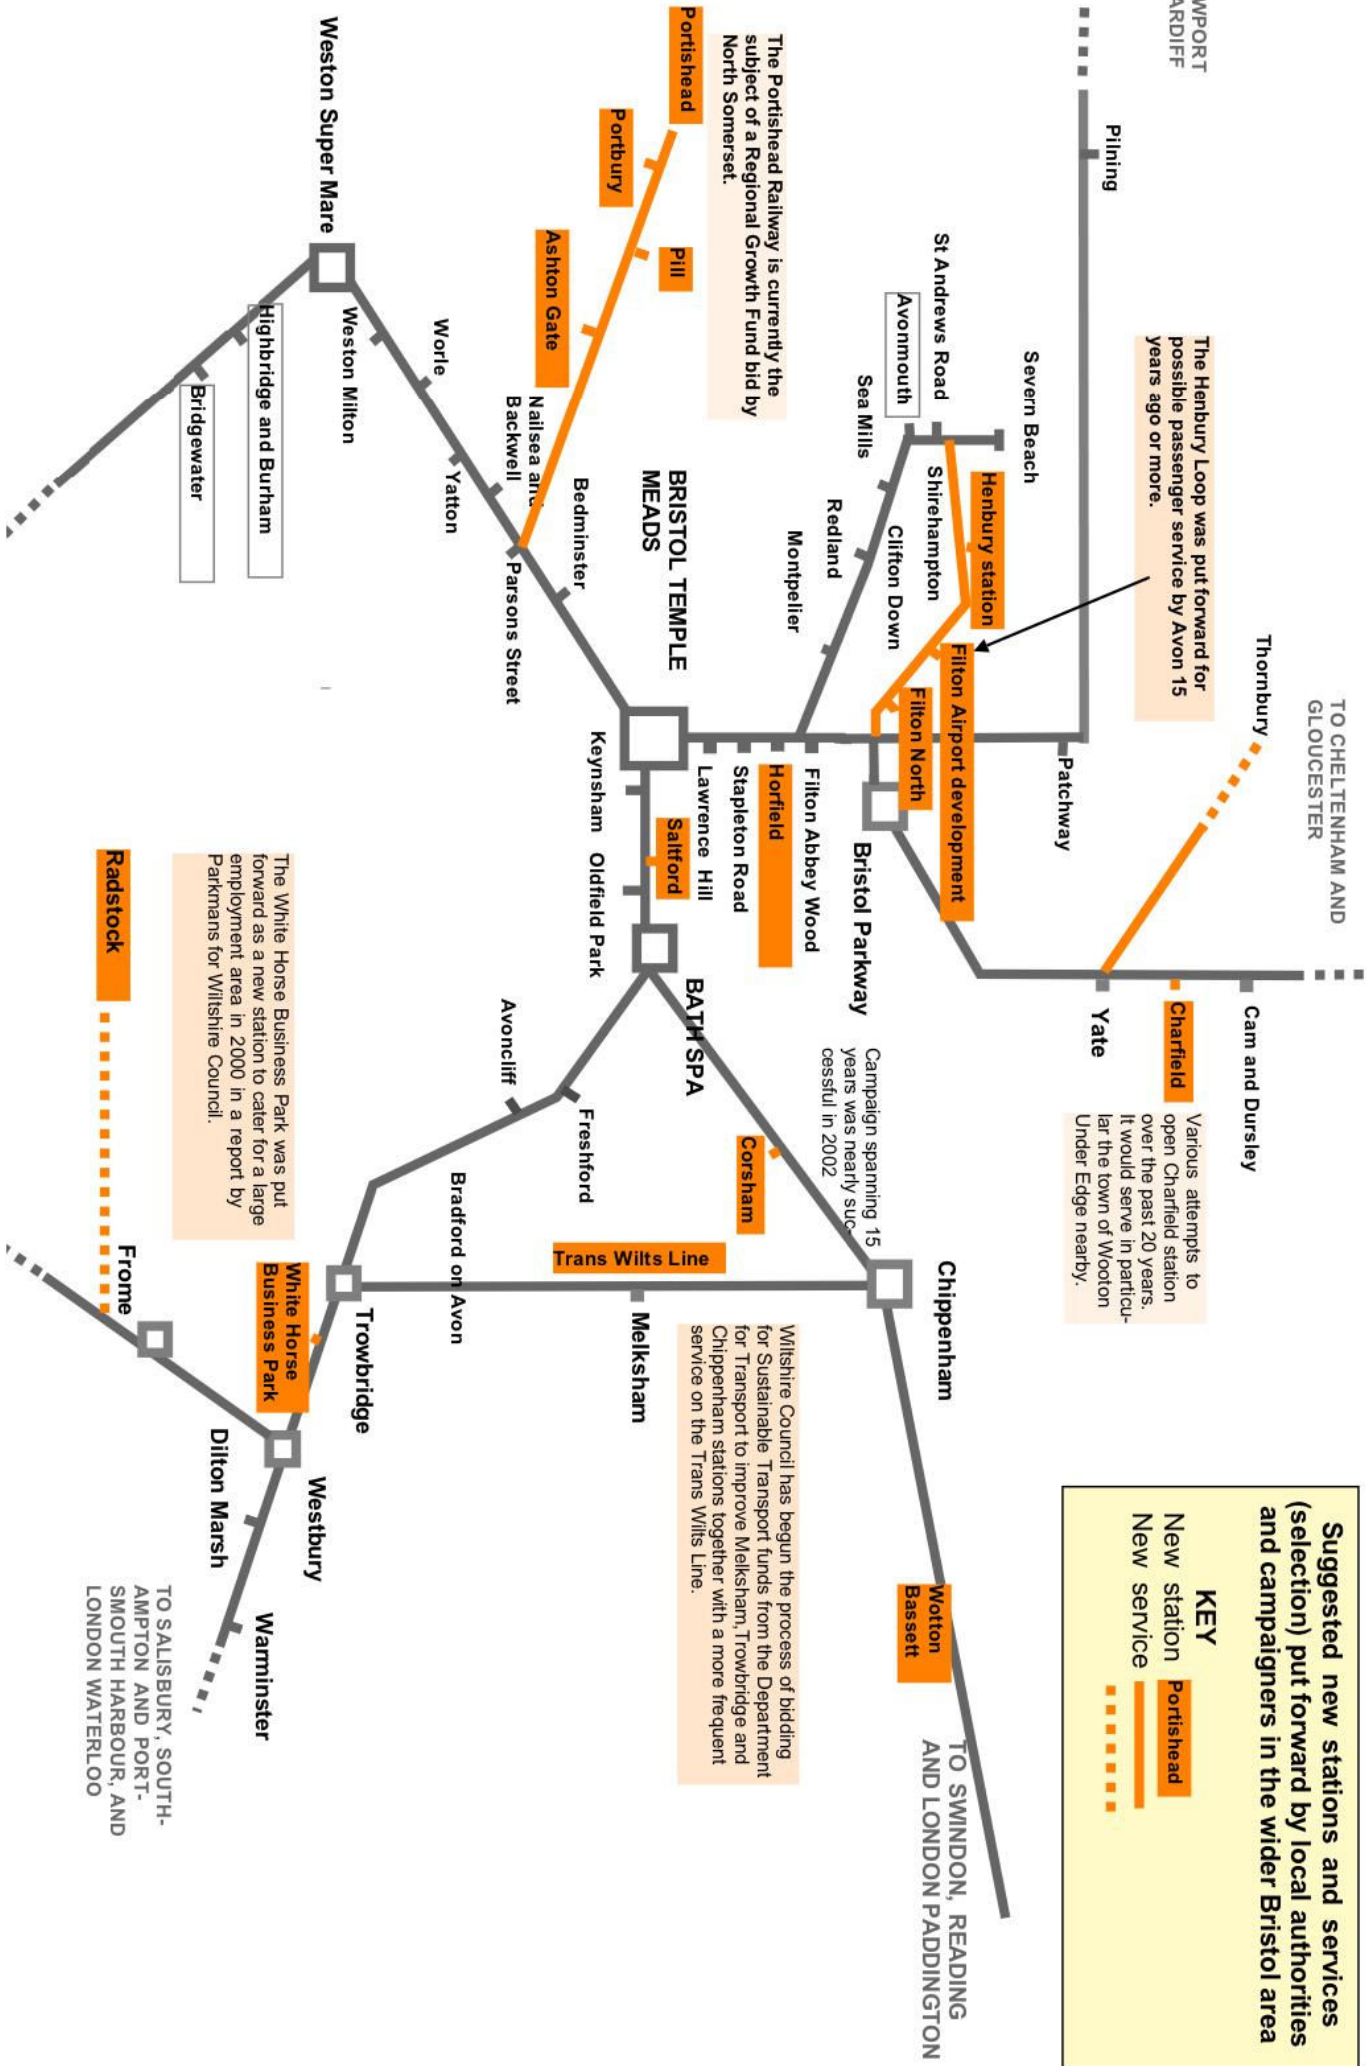

The Henbury Loop was put forward for possible passenger service by Avon 15 years ago or more.

Various attempts to open Charfield station over the past 20 years. It would serve in particular the town of Wootton Under Edge nearby.

The Portishead Railway is currently the subject of a Regional Growth Fund bid by North Somerset.

Campaign spanning 15 years was nearly successful in 2002

Wiltshire Council has begun the process of bidding for Sustainable Transport funds from the Department for Transport to improve Melksham, Trowbridge and Chippenham stations together with a more frequent service on the Trans Wilts Line.

TO SALISBURY, SOUTH-AMPTON AND PORTSMOUTH HARBOUR, AND LONDON WATERLOO