

Casual Seafront and Events Assistant Ref:

Directorate:	Place
Starting salary:	£10.36 per hour (Sunday enhancements paid)
Location:	Based in Weston-super-Mare
Hours:	Hours are flexible
Contract:	Casual Contract
Closing date:	Sunday 01 August 2021

In order to maintain and deliver an excellent visitor experience North Somerset Council's Seafront and Events Team are looking to expand their pool of casual staff. This role will primarily support car parking over the upcoming season on Weston Seafront and other car parks nearby.

Responsibilities will include: providing welcoming and friendly public advice or information, collecting fees, checking parked vehicles for valid tickets and marshalling incoming traffic and directing visitors to park in suitable spaces that are available. You may also be required to support the operational team monitor and manage other beach areas such as the WindZone and Slipway and support across other service areas including The Bay Café and Tropicana.

Are you or someone you know, a flexible, reliable, team player with excellent customer service skills? Do you enjoy working outdoors, in a fast-paced environment and public facing role? If so, this could be the perfect opportunity for you!

This post will require weekend working in order to deliver operational cover 7 days per week. Applicants who hold a full valid driving licence would be advantageous, however, this is not essential!
