

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Public Health Service Delivery - Coronavirus

Purpose.

This privacy notice is to supplement all the information we currently make available about how we process your personal data. Its aim is to explain how our organisation may seek to collect and hold information about you in relation to the unprecedented challenges we are all facing during the Coronavirus pandemic (COVID-19).

We are committed to protecting your personal data and ensuring that it is processed fairly and lawfully. Information you provide to us will be processed in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018) and subsequent legislation.

In response to the outbreak of Coronavirus, we may seek to collect, process and share the personal data of our staff, their dependents and the general public, in ways which go above and beyond normal practice. This is in order to ensure their safety and wellbeing.

Such information will be limited to what is legal, proportionate and necessary, taking into account the latest guidance issued by the Government and health professionals, in order to provide the necessary support to those most vulnerable and in need and also, to manage and contain the virus.

A lot of what we will do with your personal data will be covered by existing powers under current laws. You can find out more about how we process your information at <https://www.n-somerset.gov.uk/council-democracy/privacy-cookies/privacy-notices-data-protection>

Legal Basis.

The legal basis for data processing we are relying on, comes from Article 6 of the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR). The following sections apply;

- Article 6(1)(c) Legal Obligation - Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject;
- Article 6(1)(d) Vital interest - the processing is necessary to protect someone's life;
- Article 6(1)(e) Public task -the processing is necessary for you to perform a task in the public interest or for your official functions, and the task or function has a clear basis in law.

Special category data:

- It is necessary to share sensitive information for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising specific rights in the field of social protection law, for the provision of health or social care treatment or the management of health or social care systems. (Article 9 2(h) GDPR).

- Public health processing- it is necessary for reasons of public interest in the area of public health (Article 9 2 (i) GDPR)

The Emergency Planning Service deliver the Local Authority's statutory responsibilities and duties as a Category 1 Emergency Responder as set out by the Civil Contingencies Act (CCA) 2004.

The local authority must plan for, respond to and recover from major incidents in the North Somerset.

The statutory duties placed on the local authority as a Category 1 responder includes the anticipation and assessment of risks, production of plans for the purpose of controlling and/or mitigating the impact of emergency incidents and business disruptions as well as effectively responding to, and recovering from, an emergency.

The processing of personal information is necessary for compliance with the statutory requirements of the Civil Contingencies Act 2004(CCA).

COVID 19 Track and Trace
