

💡 Spotlight report: crime and anti-social behaviour 💡

Anti-social behaviour

Incidents of anti-social behaviour across North Somerset show a downward trend overall in recent years but there has been significant fluctuation during that period with some peaks in activity, generally during the summer months.

Anti-social behaviour in North Somerset as a rate per 1,000 of the population is slightly lower than the national rate however there are significant geographical differences in those rates across the district with higher rates in areas of Weston-super-Mare including Weston town centre.

Anti-social behaviour over time (number of incidents)

Crime

Incidents of crime across North Somerset show a slight downward trend overall from July 2021 but there has been significant fluctuation during that period and differences across crime types.

Based on the last monthly data set violent crimes made up over 50% of all crimes. Other crimes include public order offences, various thefts including shoplifting and burglary and drug related offences.

Crime in North Somerset as a rate per 1,000 of the population is slightly lower than the national rate however there are significant geographical differences in those rates across the district with higher rates in areas of Weston-super-Mare including Weston town centre.

Crime over time (number of incidents)

