

Vacancy for part time Support Worker in Banwell – job reference CLAR1

Job title

Part time support worker in Banwell required for a young man with autism.

Job description

Part-time support worker is required for four hours a week to support a young man with autism.

Pay and hours

£16.47 an hour. Four hours a week.

Skills

Looking for an enthusiastic male in their 20's or 30's to support a young person to engage with activities in the local community. Keen interests are darts, football, boxing and board games.

Applicant will need to have confidence in working with individuals who have a learning disability and have an understanding of autism. Training can be provided. Strong communication skills are required to ensure a positive relationship is built with the individual requiring support as well as their family member.

Services

Administration and correspondence – full support required.

Training

Support worker will be expected go through the Connecting Lives assessment process and will need to complete mandatory training.

Transport

Required.

Required availability

Four hours a week.